North Olmsted City Schools Staff News

Christopher Caleris will become the new Principal at Butternut Primary School, due to the retirement of Christine Sumpter. Chris will move to Butternut from his position as Assistant Principal at North Olmsted High School. Chris joined the district in 2001. He taught math at the Middle School for 6 years, and also served as the district's Consulting Teacher mentoring new teachers in grades K-12. Many students and parents also know Mr. Caleris as a coach.

Jim Koontz will become the new Assistant Principal at North Olmsted High School. Jim has been a 7th and 8th grade science teacher at the Middle School, and the Science Department Chair. Jim is also part of the district's leadership team that participated in the McRel Balanced Leadership Training. He served as the Middle School's instructional leader for the cross-curricular integration of the M.A.X. (Motivation, Acquisition, Extension) Teaching strategies that helps instruct teachers on research-based reading and writing strategies in content areas.

Denise Ressler will become the new Principal at Spruce Primary School due to the retirement of Dan Mohar. Denise has served as the district's Consulting Teacher since 2008. She was the Summer School Lead Teacher for three years, taught second grade at Birch and Maple for a total of 8 years, and was the Title I teacher at Maple Elementary in 1998-99. Denise founded the very successful A.P.P.L.E.S. (Assisting Positive Parenting through Learning, Encouragement and Support) program at Birch, Butternut and Maple schools which brings parents and teachers together to discuss topics ranging from reading strategies and literacy, to health and nutrition.

Mike Diamond will become the new Director of Human Resources due to the retirement of Gary Novak. Mike has served for twelve years as a school administrator in the Westlake and Amherst schools. He has helped his districts earn the Excellent or Excellent with Distinction rating, served on negotiating teams, and helped to transition a 7th and 8th grade junior high school to a high performing team-based middle school. He began his teaching in the Cleveland schools as a history teacher and has also earned a Juris Doctor from Duquesne University School of Law.
